The AI wore an abnormally tall, black form, its head ringed with observation lenses, multiple limbs falling from its curved shoulders like a fringed cape. It carried itself on more limbs that fell from its narrow waist. It reminded her of a metallic Terran squid. They were alone on the deck, but she knew others observed somewhere beyond her security sweep. It was what the Kairi were doing as well.

Despite his complicated relationship with his brother, every 1000 years (one year in Eternal terms), Eros meets and catches up with Thanos at a neutral location. This occasion, dubbed the Truce, is an opportunity for the two to let go of the past— whatever pain they might have inflicted on the other— and celebrate the connection between them. They also bring gifts for the other person, to ...

The kernel is not a revolutionary change, but we welcome the moniker change. It's apt for Linux's 20th birthday, and the older 2.6 naming scheme became complicated. It became like my second phone number. It's hard to make revolutionary changes, especially when you have the open-source community making so many contributions. Just like a democratic political process, the changes are going to be ...
